

Lisa Findlay has expertise in major construction and infrastructure projects across the transport health and energy sectors.

Lisa assists on complex and large-scale projects throughout Australia. This includes advising on project risks contract administration and the strategic management of disputes.

Lisa's experience includes

Providing advice on contractual disputes in relation to the payment of liquidated damages and completion of works arising from the construction of a solar farm in New South Wales.

– Assisting in acting, as part of a team, for a global engineering firm defending litigation in the Federal Court of Australia.

– Assisting in advising an equity investor of potential claims in respect of two Australian renewable energy projects.

– Drafting and advising on claims in respect of a significant rail project in Western Australia.

– Advising an oil and gas company on risk in the context of a sale of strategically significant infrastructure.

– Acting for Project Co in upstream and downstream disputes before independent experts regarding operational phase issues including the application of abatement regimes and the delivery of services.

– Drafting and advising on contract terms to be used for the subcontracting of packages on a renewable energy infrastructure project in New South Wales – Assisting in acting in commercial disputes in the Supreme Court of Victoria in respect of breaches of directors duties, franchising agreements and alliance agreements.

– Assisting in acting for liquidators in public examinations of former company directors.

– Assisting in advising an international defence systems supplier in relation to disclosure documents and confidential information.

– Preparing court documents including pleadings, affidavits, witness statements, submissions and subpoenas.

– Briefing and instructing Counsel in relation to court proceedings and private dispute resolution procedures.

Lisa is a member of the Society of Construction Law Australia.

Lisa was admitted to practice in Victoria in 2017.

Lisa Findlay
BA JD
Senior Associate

+61 3 9606 3205
lfindlay@molinocahill.com.au